CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY

The British Toxicology Society awards bursaries to Early Career Scientists to support an oral presentation at the BTS annual congress.

The criteria for eligibility are:

- Not more than 3 years from PhD; DM or bachelors of medicine if course followed immediately after PhD.
- Membership of BTS (or application for membership received no later than the application for the bursary)
- Applicants can receive a maximum of 3 bursaries, but may not receive more than 1 per year.
- Selection for presentation of an oral communication at the 2017 BTS congress in the Early career oral presentation session.
- Post-doctoral Status must be confirmed by head of department or line manager.

HOW TO APPLY FOR A BTS BURSARY

Once abstracts submissions and registration have opened:

- Submit your abstract via the online process to the BTS congress
- Concurrently complete this bursary application form and email it to meetings@thebts.org – deadline, January 30 2017
- Ensure all bursary application forms include your confirmation of status from the Head of Department or line manager.

The Scientific Sub-Committee will decide upon the bursary awards six weeks prior to the BTS meeting.
